The key costs outline the investment made in sturdy structures that must withstand heavy community usage and weather elements for a minimum of 20 years. This restoration represents a small portion of a single park within our vast 165 parks.

Visit pittsburghparks.org for additional information regarding the August Wilson Park restoration initiative.

Additional costs not illustrated include various site furnishings, signs, project management, and maintenance.