

Activities:

Zzzzzzip!

Race your friends on Fort Pitt Playground's awesome rail system (with the yellow handholds). Show off your strength, and speed!

100 yard dash!

A football field is 100 yards from endzone to endzone. How fast can you dash between the two?

Unbeleafable!

The edges of the playground are covered with trees. Collect as many different leaves as you can. Challenge a friend, and see who finds the most!

Pullups for Everyone!

Three bars of different heights at the playground provide the opportunity to try some pullups, whether you're short medium or tall! How many can you do?

History

Fort Pitt Park used to serve the students of Fort Pitt Elementary School (PreK-5). The school closed in 2013, but the park is still open to the public. It features one of the most dynamic playgrounds in the entire Pittsburgh Parks system, including a variety of zip-line inspired equipment. This park also has a basketball court, a tennis court and, a rarity for our hilly city - a full sized football field.
