

april parks news

Friend, the Pittsburgh Parks Conservancy is your non-profit partner in the parks. From our annual Earth Day extravaganza to fabulously fashionable fundraisers, we're excited to celebrate the parks with you this month.

two days of fun and free festivities are just around the corner

Every April, hundreds of Pittsburghers flock to Frick Park for one reason: Earth Day! Don't miss a campfire under the stars, a morning volunteer event, naturalist-led hikes, partner-led activities, local food, and much more.

keep your tree-mendous park trees thriving this arbor month

From now through Arbor Day, we're spreading the word about our spectacular park trees and how you can help your urban forest grow. Our work to improve the health of Pitts- burgh's urban forest would not be possible without you.

Right now, park trees are threatened by invasive pests and climate change - but you can help. By supporting the Park Tree Fund, you're helping to preserve and maintain our park trees.
