

Draw the crane fly larva in its natural habitat... the stream! Remember all the things they need to survive... food, water, shelter, space, and air. You can add other stream animals like crayfish, scud, or planaria to your stream drawing too!

Hint: Crane fly larvae like to eat decaying plant material and other insect larvae. They find shelter beneath rocks in streams and in moist soil along the stream bed.

